Acceptance of International Registration designating the UK

I have examined your designation under the Trade Marks Act 1994 and have searched the relevant trade mark registers. Your designation appears to meet the requirements.

The details of your designation will now be published in our online Trade Marks Journal for opposition purposes.

After the mark has been published, there is a 2 month opposition period in which anybody may oppose its protection. If someone gives notice that they are considering an opposition, this period will be extended to 3 months. If we receive any opposition, or the opposition period is extended, we will write to tell you.

If nobody opposes the mark, we will protect it 2 weeks after the opposition period ends.

To be notified when your trade mark becomes protected, use our free online eAlerts service. Visit www.ipo.gov.uk/tmealerts for this service.

Yours faithfully,

Jonathan Hayward
